

A Polish student looking to get a visa for Iraq will generally need to follow these steps:

1. Determine the Type of Visa Needed

Since you're a student, you may need either:

- A tourist visa (if visiting temporarily)
- A student visa (if studying in Iraq)
- A business or special visa (if attending conferences, research, etc.)

2. Check Visa Requirements

Polish citizens usually need a visa to enter Iraq. Requirements can vary, so check with the Iraqi Embassy in Poland or the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Iraq.

Typically, required documents include:

- ✓ A valid passport (at least 6 months validity)
- ✓ A completed visa application form
- ✓ Passport-sized photos
- ✓ Proof of accommodation in Iraq
- ✓ Travel itinerary (flight bookings)
- ✓ Invitation letter (if applicable)
- ✓ Proof of financial means
- ✓ Visa fee payment

For student visas, you may also need:

- ✓ An official acceptance letter from an Iraqi university
- ✓ Proof of tuition payment or financial sponsorship

3. Apply for the Visa

- Iraqi Embassy in Poland: Submit your application in person.
- E-Visa (if applicable): Some types of visas may be available online.
- Visa on Arrival (Limited Availability): Some travelers can get visas at Baghdad or Erbil airports, but this is not guaranteed for Polish citizens.

4. Wait for Processing

Visa processing can take several days to weeks, depending on the type.

5. Travel to Iraq

Once approved, ensure you carry all required documents when entering Iraq, as border officials may ask for additional verification.
