

Biography and Science

Name.. A. Dr. Nahda Hussein Ali Jaafar al-Assadi

He holds a bachelor's degree in 1980 from the Faculty of Education Ibn Rushd, University of Baghdad.

He holds a master's degree in 1996 from the Faculty of Education, Ibn Rushd, University of Baghdad.

He holds a certificate of Dr. 2_2_2000 from the Faculty of Education Ibn Rushd, University of Baghdad

Title of master's thesis (Iraq in the last Ottoman era is a historical, socio-socio-cultural study)

Title of doctoral thesis (Najaf in the last Ottoman period a historical socio-economic political study)

I got the title of Assistant Professor in 2005.

She was named Professor of the Year 2014.

He has more than 75 scientific historical papers published in international scientific court journals.

The section of the research was related to the translations of scientists and in the history of Arab civilization and the history of Andalusia and other scientific research and I continue to write historical and scientific research for me

I supervised a large number of letters, frames and high diploma messages.

I discussed more than 300 university letters and doctor's thesis.

He has current books, eight books he has published from arab publishing houses and is about to complete two books with the help of Allah Almighty.

I have been instrumental in participating in international scientific conferences inside and outside Iraq, I cannot limit these participations

Management positions

Rapporteur of the Department of Future Studies at the Higher Institute of Graduate Studies at the University of Mustansiriyah from 2000 to 2005

Head of the Department of History Faculty of Arts, University of Mustansiriyah in 2014

Chairperson of the Governing Body of the Strategic Center for Research and Studies

Member of the Governing Body of the Iraqi Historians Association

General Secretariat member of the International Federation of Historians

Chairperson of a scientific committee in the history department and a member of a scientific committee for a number of years

Chairwoman of the Committee of The Hills in the history department

I worked on most committees in the department.

History Department Foundation with some colleagues in the Faculty of Arts University of Mustansiriyah

He has a distinguished presence and active participation in the presentation of seminars and research concerning Baghdadi councils.

I have received thanks and appreciation from the Ministers of Higher Education for a number of occasions

And also I got thanks from the presidents of Iraqi universities and from the presidents of the University of Mustansiriyah

And I got thanks from the deans of Iraqi universities, including the Mustansiriyah University

I get shields, thanks and appreciation from the presidents of Iraqi universities

The value of a large number of letters and frames scientifically

Also the value of scientific research to promote a large number

My presence at an international conference in Tunisia in which I was awarded the Order of the Arab Historian in recognition of the distinguished and creative role in the service of history and civilization of the Arab-Islamic nation throughout history by the Assistant Secretary General of the Arab League represented the Arab historian in this honor

And I still work and I will contribute to international historical conferences in most Arab countries

This biography is a summary of what you've done.