Third Year

Lecture Nine

Future Tense: expresses an action that will take place(happen) in the future.

Future Forms:

1. Will+ infinitive

   تعبر هذه الصيغة عن نية أداء عمل ما في المستقبل(حسب الظروف)

   Example: I will work as an accountant if I graduate next year.

   Example: I will fly to London if I receive an invitation from my uncle there.

2. Verb to be+ going to+ infinitive تعبر هذه الصيغة عن الأصرار والتصميم القويين على أداء عمل ما في المستقبل.

   Verb to be: is ,are, am

   Example: I'm going to take my final exams next week.

   Example: The workers are going to receive their salary next week.

Exercise: Underline the correct verb form.

1. 'Why are you wearing a coat?'
   'Because I'll take/I'm going to take the children for a walk.'
2. 'Would you like to go out for a meal this evening?'
   'How about tomorrow evening? I'll call/ I'm calling you.'
3. 'What's the score?'
   '6-0. They're going to lose/They'll lose.
4. 'It's Tony's birthday next week.'
   'Is it? I didn't know. I'll send /I'm going to send him a card.
5. 'Are Sue and Alan engaged?'
   'Oh yes, they'll get/they're getting married in June.'
6. 'Where are you going on holiday this year?'
   'We haven't decided. We might go/We're going to Italy.'