Fourth Year

Lecture Five

Page 25

Exclamations أسلوب التعجب

1. Exclamation is made with what followed by a noun or by an adjective + a noun:

Examples:

What an exciting experience!

What a nice movie!

What a delicious meal!

What a large house!

What an interesting book!

What nonsense!

Note: the indefinite articles a, an are not used when we exclaim about uncountable nouns or plural nouns.

Examples:

What useful advice you gave me!

What logical wisdom you have!

What nice glasses!

What wonderful philosophy you hold!

What clever students!

2. Exclamation is also made with how followed by an adjective or followed by an adverb

Examples:

How horrible!

How nice!

How good!

How smart he is!

How brilliant she is!

How lazy you are!

How interesting the movie was!

How carefully she drives!

How politely the child behaves!

How easily people are frightened!
How admirably the student answers!
How delicious the food I have eaten!
How friendly treatment I receive at University!
How good my friend is!
How noisily children play!